b. Garden Club Update:

Mary Reed shared with the Members present, regarding the planting and progress of the new planters. Also, there are still some unsold plaques. Dorothy Trgina mentioned about one of the residents at the AFC Home on the corner of South Main and Tyrell Streets, sitting on the edge of the bowl with the flower plants and using the soil to extinguish cigarettes and leave them in the soil. Kurt Giles will follow up on this.

c. Lincoln Park.

Mark Abbott brought up the condition of the wood play equipment, I.e., the conditions and age. Mark requested that the Commission Members visit Lincoln Park to look at the play equipment and report back at the July Meeting. Mark also requested that this item be placed on the July Meeting Agenda. There was also a discussion on replacement of playground equipment in some of the Parks.

d. Swimming Pool.

Melissa Allen suggested that Jeff DeRosia, Pool Director be invited to the July Meeting to update the Commission on the pool status.

There being no further business to come before the Commission, the Meeting was adjourned at 5:35 P.M.

The next Parks & Recreation Commission Meeting will be held on Monday, July 13th, 2015 at 4:15 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Dorothy Trgina
